Nurturing Holistic Education in Sri Vrindavan Dham

The Bhaktivedanta Gurukula and International School (BGIS) is located in the beautiful holy land of Sri Vrindavan Dham, the abode of Lord Sri Krishna. It offers the best of both worlds - traditional alongside modern education. Founder acharya of ISKCON A.C. Bhaktivedanta Srila Prabhupada laid the cornerstone of BGIS in 1976 and established BGIS with a need to inculcate real education in the youth of today.

With the motto 'simple living, high thinking,' the education comprises meditation along with modern education running in parallel with value-based development. Every year Gurukul accepts students from all over India and abroad, it is a boarding school for boys with the campus covering over 100 acres and equipped with all modern amenities.
