Response to Sanaka Rsi's Letter Regarding Laksmimoni Dasi's Case

Dear Sanaka Rsi,

You are entirely mistaken in thinking that I asked Brahmatirtha Prabhu to "defend" Laksmimoni DD. My only concern was fair process, the same topic that I wrote about extensively in my paper on the GBC.
I have no plan to exonerate LMDD. I have never claimed that she is innocent and I have never asked anyone to help show that she is innocent. I simply called for fair judicial process.
Before publicly accusing others, I suggest that you exercise due diligence to get the facts straight. My position is, and has always been, that a fair trial should take place and I will accept the results.

Your well-wisher,
Hridayananda das Goswami
