I [redacted] can testify to Graham Duncan's guilt to sexualy abusing girls & woman.
When I lived in South Africa with my parents in a large house I was engaged to him at the age of 13. My father had aranged the engagement and to make my parents happy I went along with it. I was a very shy girl when it came to men as I had been brought up in a very strict boarding school in acordance with my religous beliefs which said that contact between men & woman was only within marrige.

For some reason my father broke off the engagement which angered Graham because at about 12:30am - 1:00am he knocken on my bedroom windon and said he had to talk to me about something. He was very threatening and said if I told anyone about this meeting he would hurt my family members. Of course I came out of the house and he took me to a his friends room which was about 30-50 feet from my room and started trying to make me sit on his lap. Eventualy after holding me forcebly on his lap he stated telling me that my dad was against him because he didn't know what was best for me & that ~~#~~ he wanted still to marry me and the only way to do that would be to get me pregnant. I started freeking out and crying but he let me go and I went back to my room & hid under the covers till I had to get up. I did not sleep at all for quite a few weeks.

At one point my family was going to travel from Durban to Johanesburg and Graham had told my dad he had to talk to me alone so my dad said I should just travel down with Graham in his car. I protested but I went in the end. On the way Graham stoped by a hotel, in the car park behind the hedge and told me that we were going to go into a hotel room and I had to get pregnant. I started crying and refused to get out of the car at which point Graham slapped me. A passer by knocked on the window and asked if I was alright but Graham told him I was just upset and told him to go away. After that he started touching me and then he raped me. I cryed the whole time and it happened 2 more times on the way. when I got home my dad asked why we were late and Graham told him we stoped to eat. I never told my parents because he said he would hart my family.

This is my testimony.
