Opportunities for service in Vrindavan Dham : Teaching and other services

BGIS is a boarding school in India that offers a unique blend of spiritual and modern education. It is ranked 16th best boarding school in India and is part of ISKCON. The school has a scholarship program for meritorious students and the faculty is composed of individuals with advanced degrees from institutions such as IIT, Global MBA, and Ph.D. programs. The school moved to a 60-acre campus called Vrindaranyam that is powered by green energy, has a replica of Braj, world-class facilities, and an integrated skill development facility. Bhaktivedanta Gurukula & International School (BGIS) is an education project of ISKCON, personally established by HDG A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada in 1975. In the year 2019, it was shifted to a beautiful campus situated around 20 minutes from Vrindavan town. Currently it is a residential school with ICSE/ISC curriculum from classes 1 to 12 along with Krishna conscious education.
