The temple president is then obliged to notify the local householders and GBC of the offender's presence.
28. That the Health and Welfare Committee shall now be known as the Ministry for Health and Welfare.
29. That Prahladananda Swami is appointed Minister for Health and Welfare.
30. That resolution # 93-71 is repealed.
31. That the GBC Body approves and encourages:
a. That a book be produced analyzing and presenting systematically Srila Prabhupada's expressed desires and instructions on community and varnasrama development.
b. That a Krsna conscious guide to permaculture be produced to deal with topics pertinent to integrated resource management.
c. That a book be produced that examines extensively all topics relating to cow protection and working with oxen.

33. That Kirtiraja Prabhu be assigned as Candidate for GBC for the Caribbean.
34. That Partha Sarathi Das (France) be placed on the one year sannyasa waiting list.
35. That the following statement be accepted as ISKCON's statement about the Founder-Acarya:
To fulfill the previous acarya's desire for a united worldwide preaching organization to expand Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu's mission, Srila Prabhupada founded the International Society for Krishna Consciousness as a distinct branch of the Brahma Madhva Gaudiya Vaisnava sampradaya. Therefore he is the Founder-Acarya of ISKCON.
a. Srila Prabhupada is the foundational siksa guru for all ISKCON devotees because he has realized and presented the teachings of the previous acaryas of the Brahma Madhva Gaudiya sampradaya appropriately for the modern age.
b. Srila Prabhupada's instructions are the essential teachings for every ISKCON devotee.
c. Srila Prabhupada's books are the embodiment of his teachings and should be accepted as the standard by all future generations of ISKCON.
d. Srila Prabhupada should be worshiped daily by every ISKCON member.
e. Every ISKCON spiritual master is responsible to guide his disciples to follow Srila Prabhupada's instructions.
f. As Founder-Acarya, Srila Prabhupada gave directions for management, principles of co-operation, and other practical guidelines which form the basis and inspiration for ISKCON's policies.
g. Srila Prabhupada established the Governing Body Commission to execute his will, following the order of the previous acaryas.
37. That the GBC Body offers its vote of thanks to His Grace Krsna Ksetra Dasa, His Holiness Bhanu Swami and all the members of the Deity Worship Committee for their sincere service in successfully publishing the Deity Worship book.
38. That Bhakti Tirtha Swami is reinstated as a member in good standing of the GBC and his suspension of 1991 is removed.
39. That Radha Govinda Das:
a. Is approved to take sannyasa.
b. Must not initiate until approved.
c. Must plan his preaching programs in consultation with the subcommittee of Gopal Krishna Goswami, Lokanath Swami and Bhurijana Dasa.
40. That Adridharana Prabhu, Calcutta Temple President, shall be the recognized authority for directing preaching and fundraising activities in Calcutta and Howrah. All such programs need to receive his prior approval and devotees should co-operate with his directions.
ISKCON Calcutta has a duty to help support ISKCON Mayapur and spread the glories of Mayapur. After the Calcutta project is completed, in about five years, Calcutta has a duty to help build Mayapur.
ISKCON Mayapur should no longer send its membership makers to the Calcutta/Howrah area. In exchange ISKCON Mayapur may choose whichever of the following options they prefer:
a) 2 1/2 lakh rupees per month, adjusted annually for inflation; or
b) 30% of funds collected from the enrollment of new life members, but not less than two lakh rupees or more than five lakh.
ISKCON Mayapur can retain their entire membership team. Bombay has agreed to host at least one team as a trial, and if it works will add one more team. The rest can enroll members in the remainder of Bengal.
Adridharana will put three months maintenance on fixed deposit in case he should fall behind in his Mayapur payments. Payment will be due on the 1st of each month. Bhakti Charu Swami has agreed to also stand behind the payments as a guarantor. HH Sridhara Swami is appointed as monitor, and he has authority to access these funds should ISKCON Calcutta fall behind in its payments. If Calcutta falls more than two months behind, the entire agreement is null and void.

Bus Tours from Calcutta will be under Calcutta's control. The caliber and quality will be co-ordinated with the monitor to improve them and collect complaints.
Donations given in Mayapur by Calcutta residents visiting are Mayapur's. They are not to be credited against Calcutta's guarantee of maintenance.
Adridharana agrees to hold seminars to help train Mayapur devotees for capital campaigns and fund raising. He will also help Mayapur set up tours from other parts of Bengal.
If the agreement is working, Adridharana will consider:
a. helping Pancaratna organize a monthly membership program for Mayapur in Calcutta;
b. membership makers from Mayapur working in Calcutta on some percentage basis, under the Calcutta temple president's direction;
c. the possibility of a one month membership marathon.
The decision to proceed with any or all of the above is solely at the discretion of Adridharana and Sridhar Maharaj, the monitor.
Sridhar Maharaj will act as the arbitrator of this agreement in the event of conflicts. It will be reviewed again by a GBC sub-committee in Mayapur in 1995.
Sridhar Maharaj will be the monitor for negotiating an improvement in the bus tours. He will select the devotee who can access the fixed deposit to cover Mayapur's monthly maintenance should Adridharana fall behind.

In return the local ISKCON Centers will pledge a mutually agreed percentage of general funds (not ear-marked for Samadhi or Temple) raised to the Global Centennial Fund.

More members may be added to the Committee with the permission of the GBC Executive Committee.

49. Whereas it is the obligation of Srila Prabhupada's disciples and grand-disciples to bring their godbrothers and godsisters back into the practice of Krishna Consciousness; into the house which Srila Prabhupada built for the whole world to live in, as a service to His Divine Grace;

Whereas several successful attempts, especially in the form of devotee reunions, have already brought back a number of Prabhupada's disciples and grand disciples, who revived their Prabhupada consciousness and their spiritual practices;
Whereas having as many as possible of his disciples and grand disciples around his lotus feet in 1996 would be the most pleasurable Centennial offering to His Divine Grace;
It is resolved that the members of the GBC reaffirm their commitment to try to recover devotees who have neglected their spiritual practices as affirmed in the following resolution passed in 1977 in the presence of Srila Prabhupada.
"Each GBC man is responsible to try to recover the not fully active devotees living in his zone."
